ArcGIS Cadastral Editor & Cadastral Fabric

The ArcGIS Cadastral fabric defines a dataset type for storing parcel record information in a geodatabase. The cadastral editor is an editing application for managing this parcel information held in the fabric. With ArcGIS 9.4 a number of changes and improvements are available. Tim Hodson, LS will be providing a technology preview of the newest features and capabilities that have been launched with ArcGIS 9.4 (currently in Beta).

This is an informal, informational presentation hosted by the Washington State Section of the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping.
